The OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging service allows libraries to access WorldCat to search and retrieve MARC records for cataloging, edit records in their local systems, and set holding information in WorldCat.

• Get started

Get started with the OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging service.
  ○ About Z39.50 Cataloging
  ○ Configuration guide for OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging
  ○ Get started with OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging

• Use Z39.50 Cataloging

Find search tips and steps for database update implementation.
  ○ Database update implementation for OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging: Extended Service Definition
  ○ Search tips for OCLC Z39.50 Authorities
  ○ Search tips for OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging

• Troubleshooting

Find frequently asked questions (FAQ) and troubleshooting steps (Troubleshooting).
  ○ Can I access authority files with this service?
  ○ Can I display holdings information for individual items?
  ○ Can I edit/delete full records?
  ○ Can I use CJK or other non-Latin alphabet software?
  ○ Can my library use RCON and search-only authorizations?
  ○ Does this service provide access to other OCLC databases?
  ○ For authentication it says that "The service patron password is the password that must be used".
  ○ How does OCLC Z39.50 Cataloging compare to OCLC Connexion?
  ○ How do member libraries delete holdings?
  ○ How do member libraries set holdings?
  ○ Unable to download single bibliographic record from Z39.50 cataloging to Alma
What are the URL addresses for Z39.50 access?

https://help.oclc.org/Metadata_Services/Z3950_Cataloging
Printed: Thu, 29 Dec 2022 03:18:39 GMT