Update

Temporarily removing fix to Local Holding Records duplicate lines of availability when textual holding pairs are used

In this release we will be removing a fix that was part of the May 2019 WorldCat Discovery release, that fixed an issue some users experience when using textual holding pairs in the following fields.

- 866/876
- 867/877
- 868/878
- 865/878

This fix inadvertently caused other display issues. This issue and others will be worked on for inclusion in an upcoming release. We apologize for any confusion this may have caused.
