The OCLC Cataloging Express service provides an easy-to-use Web interface for copy cataloging. Copy cataloging is selecting an existing bibliographic record from WorldCat®, adding local data to it, and then adding the record to your local catalog.

- Get started
  - No image available

  Find information about the CatExpress interface, process, and hardware and software requirements. Discover how to set browser and export options.

  - About CatExpress
  - Action buttons
  - Customize the system interface
  - Hardware and software requirements
  - Home page and navigation bar
  - Quick reference
  - Set export options
  - Set options

- Search and catalog
  - No image available

  Learn how to perform basic and advanced searches as well as how to add local data and multiple location fields, print labels, and export records.

  - Add local data
  - Add multiple Location (852) fields
  - Advanced search
  - Basic search
  - Cataloging basics
  - Export records
  - Fix errors
  - Print labels
  - Search results

- Data fields
  - No image available
Find information about data fields in CatExpress and how to map your local system fields to available data fields.

- Call number: Class, Cutter, Type (09x) field
- Data fields mapped to local system fields
- General Note (500) field
- Location (852) field
- Nonpublic Note (590) field
- OCLC Holding Library Code (049) field
- Price (020) field
- Summary (520) field
- Target Audience, Scale, Source (521) field

- Transaction reports

  [No image available]

  Discover how to view and download transaction reports.

  - Monthly transaction reports
  - View or download transaction reports

- Frequently asked questions

  [No image available]

  Frequently asked questions (FAQ) about CatExpress.

  - Can I get exported records without setting holdings?
  - Can I get labels from CatExpress?
  - Can I search by OCLC control number?
  - Does CatExpress support medical call numbers (096)?
  - Do I have to worry about initial articles and stopwords?
  - How are export files built?
  - How can I add different subject headings or delete notes?
  - How can I determine how many units are left on my CatExpress subscription?
  - How can I limit searches in Help to CatExpress topics?
  - How do I access CatExpress
  - How do I get exported records using CatExpress?
  - Is there a trick in searching LCCNs?
  - I have a cataloging subscription. How do I access the CatExpress interface?
  - I have a CatExpress subscription. How will I be billed for records output via Collection Manager?
  - What are the CatExpress stopwords?
  - What fields are indexed by which index label?
What fields can I edit in CatExpress?
- What if I add a Summary note when the record has one?
- Who is eligible to subscribe to CatExpress?

• CatExpress training

  No image available

  Find training on CatExpress.

• Troubleshooting

  No image available

  Find frequently asked questions (FAQ) and troubleshooting steps (Troubleshooting).
  - Can I obtain a list of my holdings placed during a subscription or time period?
  - Can I get a data sync project with CatExpress?
  - Can I use Z39.50 Cataloging with a CatExpress subscription?
  - Can you change the tag CatExpress uses to export holdings information?
  - How can I get a WorldShare account set up so I can see our CatExpress usage?
  - How do I get a new CatExpress authorization?
  - Update Holdings failed error when trying to set holdings on a title via CatExpress
  - What is the difference between "setholds" and "records delivered" in the CatExpress reports