WorldShare Interlibrary Loan release notes, April 2020

Last updated: Mon, 20 Apr 2020 19:28:10 GMT

Release Date: April 19, 2020

Introduction

This release of Worldshare ILL provides a number of new features and enhancements in addition to numerous bug fixes. These features will help you manage more complex workflows, including:

- Have 180 days to process new requests, allowing you more processing time if needed
- Avoid automatic application of Constant Data when requests move to Review, so information isn’t overwritten when you don’t want it to be

Many of these enhancements are the direct result of your feedback.

Recommended actions

For this release, we recommend that you review the following checklists and complete the relevant tasks so that you can adjust your policies and workflows and train your staff. These checklists identify updates that we have determined as significant for most institutions. We encourage you to review all of the items in the release notes to determine whether there are other items that might require additional action or follow up by your institution.

Include Request ID with problem reports

When reporting an issue with WorldShare ILL, it's very helpful to include the Request ID. Including this information allows us to directly trace what happened on the request we are troubleshooting.

New features and enhancements

Have 180 days to process new requests

Previously, requests in the New For Review queue (and Not Reviewed and Reviewed sub-queues) were automatically closed (“aged out”) after 14 days. Starting April 19, 2020, new requests will remain in the New for Review queue for 180 days, so you will have more time to process them at a later date if needed.
This change applies to all requests in New For Review queues and sub-queues on April 19, 2020 and all future requests.

For more information, see Request Aging.

Avoid automatic application of Constant Data when requests move to Review

Previously, the system would frequently apply default Constant Data when requests were moved to Review. This was not ideal for several reasons and perhaps most notably when the patron-supplied need by date was overwritten when you were not wanting it to be.

With this release, default Constant Data will no longer be applied automatically when requests are moved to Review by the system. The new Automated Request Manager released in March 2020 does not require a Constant Data record to be specified for an automation and Constant Data is only applied when either:

- An automation has an action that applies a Constant Data record
- You have Constant Data persistence turned on, so Constant Data is applied when the request is first opened

For more information, see Automated Request Manager.

Deliver Get It Now articles via Article Exchange

If your library uses Get It Now, you'll soon be able to deliver Get It Now articles via Article Exchange. This functionality will be in a separate release later in April 2020. Please watch for an announcement in the OCLC Community Center when this option becomes available.

For more information, see Get It Now and Article Exchange.
