Edit WorldCat knowledge base collections with user interface

Last updated: Thu, 01 Dec 2022 21:18:36 GMT

Course description

This course provides instruction on WorldCat knowledge base collections, including search for collections, select and edit existing collections, as well as create local collections using the WorldShare Collection Manager interface.

Topics covered include:

- Search for knowledge base collections using Collection Manager interface
- Select and edit knowledge base collections using Collection Manager interface
- Create local knowledge base collections using Collection Manager interface

This course is intended for staff at member libraries who are working with electronic resources materials and will be editing or adding their electronic collections to the WorldCat knowledge base using the WorldShare Collection Manager application. The learner should know what WorldShare Collection Manager and the WorldCat knowledge base are and why the learner’s library will build its collections in the WorldCat knowledge base in order to get the most out of this course.

At the end of this session, learners will gain the foundational knowledge to search and perform basic actions on knowledge base collections.
