Do we need to send anything to OCLC if we are a Hosted EZproxy site and our LDAP certificate is expiring and we are replacing the certificate?

Applies to

• EZproxy

Answer

No, you do not need to send anything to OCLC. You only need to make sure that the Hosted EZproxy server can communicate to your LDAP server.

Page ID

40019