Learn how to edit your WorldCat.org user profile, including how to update your display name, profile visibility, WorldCat lists, and favorite libraries.

About your user profile

When you create a WorldCat account, a profile is automatically created for you. You can enter as much or as little information in your profile as you want. If you do not feel comfortable entering certain types of information, you may leave those fields blank.

From your user profile page, you can:

- View your favorite libraries.
- Update your display name.
- Set Privacy Settings and choose to hide your entire profile.
- View your lists and lists you follow.
- View and manage your favorite libraries.

Edit your user profile

1. Click Sign In.
2. Enter your user name and password.
3. Click Continue.
4. Select My Profile from the Profile drop-down menu.
5. Your user profile consists of three screens. Use the drop-down menu to open each screen.

My Profile

The My Profile screen, which opens by default, allows you to update your user profile as needed.
