How to use these exercises

OCLC's hands-on training exercises are designed to give you an opportunity to practice building your skills while working in a safe environment.

These interactive exercises can help you learn a new service, teach a new staff member how to use a service, and can also prepare you with basic knowledge about a service prior to taking one of our instructor-led courses.

Having trouble accessing a specific hands-on training module or simulation?

Please contact us at training@oclc.org or call 1-800-848-5800.