How to use these exercises

OCLC's hands-on training exercises are designed to give you an opportunity to practice building your skills while working in a safe environment.

These interactive exercises can help you learn a new service, teach a new staff member how to use a service, and can also prepare you with basic knowledge about a service prior to taking one of our instructor-led courses.

Create a loan request

This 2-part, interactive, self-paced tutorial simulates searching for the item, selecting lenders, and then completing and submitting the request form. You will learn how to create and send a loan request in WorldShare® Interlibrary Loan by clicking objects on the slides and entering text. These are the same simulations used in the OCLC live, online training courses.
