The WorldCat registry is a Web-based directory for libraries and library consortia. Find information about the WorldCat registry, how to configure settings in the WorldCat registry module of OCLC Service Configuration, and FAQ.

- About the WorldCat registry

  Find information about the WorldCat registry including data sources and policies.

  - About the WorldCat registry
  - Data sources
  - Terms and conditions

- OCLC Service Configuration - WorldCat registry

  Find help to configure settings in the WorldCat registry module of OCLC Service Configuration.

  - Search
  - Create a New Institution
  - Profile Summary
  - Name and Location
  - Map
  - Open Hours
  - Relationships
  - Contacts
  - Identifiers
  - Online Catalog
  - Virtual Reference
  - Currency and Locale
  - Authorized Users
  - Profile History

- Configure deep links

  Find materials on how to use the settings in OCLC Service Configuration > WorldCat Registry > Online Catalog. Expose deep links to your Web-accessible catalog so your patrons arrive directly at an item record.
Configure links to your online catalog
Deeplinken van WorldCat.org naar uw OPAC (Nederlands)

Frequently asked questions

Frequently asked questions (FAQ) about the WorldCat registry.

- Can I maintain profiles for more than one institution?
- Can more than one person maintain an institution's profile?
- Can the registry help set up deep catalog links for my library?
- Does my institution have to be an OCLC member to use the WorldCat registry?
- How do I update my library's catalog links?
- How do we add our institution to the WorldCat registry?
- How much does it cost to participate in the WorldCat registry?
- I'm an OCLC member library. Is my library already represented?
- I am an OCLC member library. When will registry updates to my deep catalog links start working in WorldCat.org?
- I've discovered duplicate registry profiles for my institution. What should I do?
- Some information in my institution's existing WorldCat registry profile is not correct. How can I let OCLC know of records that require corrections?
- What are "deep links"?
- What constitutes an "institution," for purposes of the WorldCat registry?
- What if our institution does not want to be included in the registry?
- What information about my institution may be included in the WorldCat registry?
- What is the WorldCat registry and why should I use it?
- What user name and password can be used to sign in to the WorldCat registry?
- Who can change or add information to my institution's profile?
- Why should libraries maintain catalog deep links in the registry?
- Why would I need to authorize my account and how do I do it?