D. OCLC's collection and use of personal information via the Service is governed by OCLC's Privacy Policy, which can be accessed at OCLC, Inc. Privacy Statement. OCLC reserves the right to correct Profiles and Institution

7. TERM AND TERMINATION

A. This Agreement for the Service shall commence on the date you indicate your agreement to these Terms as described in Section 2.A above and shall remain in effect until terminated in accordance with the following:
   i. effective at any time upon OCLC providing you with at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of its desire to terminate the Agreement;
   ii. upon your failure to agree to a new version of these Terms presented for acceptance by OCLC as described in Section 2.B above; or
   iii. when you have committed a material breach of these Terms and have not corrected the same within ten (10) days after notice of such breach from OCLC. (OCLC may, in its sole discretion, suspend your access to the Service immediately upon your material breach of these Terms pending your correction of such breach within the ten (10) day period specified above.)

B. In the event of termination of this Agreement by OCLC pursuant to Section 7.A(i) above or pursuant to Section 7.A(ii) above, you may continue to use Profiles and Institution Data obtained through the Service prior to the effective date of such termination in accordance with these Terms, which shall be deemed to survive termination of this Agreement for such purpose.

C. In the event of termination of this Agreement by OCLC pursuant to Section 7.A(iii) above, your access to the Service shall be permanently discontinued and you shall cease all use of Profiles and Institution Data in your possession. You shall certify in writing your compliance with this Section 7.C upon OCLC’s request.

If you are a California resident, you waive your rights under California Civil Code 1542, which states, "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor." Residents of other states and nations similarly waive their rights under analogous laws, statutes, or regulations.

D. You acknowledge that the Service may provide links to web sites or sources of content which are not under the control of and are not maintained by OCLC. OCLC is not responsible for and does not endorse or guarantee the content of those sites.

E. Neither party shall have any liability or obligation to the other for indirect, incidental, consequential or exemplary damages, whether based on contract, tort or any other legal theory and regardless of whether a party foresaw such damages.

9. MISCELLANEOUS

A. This Agreement constitutes the complete, final and exclusive statement of the parties' agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and is not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies. No purchase orders or other forms you submit shall apply to modify or supplement this Agreement. This Agreement may be amended only by means of a written document executed by each of the parties.

You shall be the exporter and importer of record in connection with the Service, Profiles and Institution Data as delivered by OCLC to you outside the United States, and shall pay and/or comply with all applicable export and import laws, customs, regulations tariffs, duties and fees, and procurement, data and technology transfer laws. OCLC's obligations hereunder are contingent upon necessary export licenses being obtained from federal agencies of the United States.

F. Unless another method is expressly permitted by these Terms, any notices required to be given by OCLC pursuant to these Terms shall be in writing and shall be deemed sufficient if delivered by hand or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address associated with your Account.

G. Any waiver of any terms of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by the party against whom the waiver is to be enforced.
