Searching WorldCat Indexes provides comprehensive information about the indexes used to retrieve records from WorldCat.

- Get started
  - No image available
  - Get started with Searching WorldCat Indexes.
    - About Searching WorldCat Indexes
    - Interface-specific instructions for WorldCat searching
    - Searching WorldCat indexes guidelines and requirements

- Search
  - No image available
  - Discover how to search WorldCat indexes using a variety methods and types of searches.
    - Combine, qualify, and expand searches
    - Types of searches

- Bibliographic records
  - No image available
  - Discover available bibliographic record indexes available for searching in WorldCat, values and criteria for each Format/Document and Material Type index, and RDA terms and codes.
    - Bibliographic record indexes
    - Bibliographic record fields and subfields
    - Format/Document Type values and codes
    - Material Type names and codes
    - RDA terms and codes

- Local bibliographic data records
  - No image available
  - Discover local bibliographic data records indexes available for searching local data in WorldShare. These indexes search indexed data in local bibliographic records only. You can only retrieve data from your institution’s local bibliographic data records.
    - Local bibliographic data record indexes A-Z
About local bibliographic data records

• Local holdings records

  No image available

  Discover available local holdings record indexes available for searching local data in WorldShare. These indexes search indexed data in local holdings records only. You can only retrieve data from your institution’s local holding records.

  ◦ Local holdings record indexes A-Z
  ◦ Available local holdings record indexes